

● 235,000 EUROS RAISED BY THIS YEAR'S CHARITY GOLF TOURNAMENT

WINSOR WORKS HIS WONDERS ....AGAIN

■ DANIEL Chevarria and Andreas Heider from Engel & Völkers, Calvia Councillor Kate Mentink, Jorge Pando from Real Golf de Bendinat and Robert Winsor.

By H. Carter

PALMA

THE fruits of this year's Robert Winsor Charity Golf Tournament were this week donated to the wide range of local charities for disabled and needy children which Winsor and his army of celebrity supporters have helped over the years.

This year's charity tournament was held at the Real Golf de Bendinat club, as usual, and a staggering 235,000 euros was raised for charities including Aspace, Fundacion Handisport, Minyones, Joan XXIII, Allen Graham Charity, Fundacion Sergio Garcia, Amiticia, Apnab, Asdica, Joves Navegants de Balears, Mater Misericordia, Centro Ocupacional Isla, Fundacion Respiralia, Aspaprode and Asnimo.

Two more specially customized minibuses were added to an already large fleet of buses and a vast selection of much needed items by individuals and associations were also purchased by the money raised sponsored by Engel & Völkers. There was a large turnout from members and representatives from the various beneficiaries at the presentation held at the

■ SOME of the items given out at the presentation.

Lindner Golf & Wellness Resort and presided over by Robert Winsor MBE who has dedicated the past decade to helping disabled and needy children in the Balearics, Spain and the UK.